

Université libre de Bruxelles
Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management

Dissertation presented in order to obtain the degree of PhD in Economics and Management sciences.

Subsidies, Profits and Trade-offs in Social Finance:
Applications to Microfinance

Patrick Reichert

Thesis carried out under the direction of Prof. Ariane Szafarz and Prof. Marek Hudon

Jury :

Prof. Gregor Dorfleitner, Universität Regensburg

Prof. Begoña Gutiérrez-Nieto, Universidad de Zaragoza

Prof. Marek Hudon, Université libre de Bruxelles

Prof. Marc Labie, Université de Mons & Université libre de Bruxelles

Prof. Ariane Szafarz, Université libre de Bruxelles

Academic year 2017-2018

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Table of Contents	i
Acknowledgments.....	iii
Introduction.....	1
1. A Conceptualization of Social Finance	2
2. Applicability to Microfinance	6
2.1. Commercialization.....	7
2.2. Financial Mechanisms and Investor Expectations.....	10
2.3. Conceptualizing Profits.....	13
3. Research Questions and General Plan of the Dissertation.....	15
Chapter 1: A meta-analysis examining the nature of trade-offs in microfinance	17
Abstract	17
Keywords: microfinance, financial performance, social performance, meta-analysis	17
JEL codes: C12, G21, L25, L31	17
Acknowledgements:	17
1. Introduction.....	18
2. Theoretical Framework.....	19
2.1. Microfinance Performance Indicators	20
2.2. Study Artefacts and Additional Theoretical Considerations	23
3. Methods.....	25
3.1. Search Strategy.....	25
3.2. Inclusion/Exclusion Criteria	26
3.3. Characteristics of Primary Studies	27
3.4. Measures.....	28
4. Results.....	31
4.1. Descriptive Results	31
4.2. Regression Analysis.....	33
5. Discussion.....	37
6. Conclusion	38
Chapter 2: Crowding-in or crowding-out: Subsidy design as a strategic device to foster commercialization	41
Abstract	41
Keywords: subsidy, donation, market failure, philanthropy, social finance	41
JEL codes: H25, D64, G23, I38, L33.....	41
Acknowledgments	41
1. Introduction.....	42
2. Subsidy Instruments	44
2.1. Grants.....	45
2.2. Procurement	47
2.3. Preferential Debt.....	47
2.4. Preferential Equity	48

3.	Signaling Theory, Crowding-in and Crowding-out.....	49
4.	Application to Microfinance.....	54
5.	Conclusion.....	63
Chapter 3: What is a fair profit for a social enterprise? Insights from microfinance.....		67
Abstract.....		67
Keywords: microfinance, development ethics, exploitation, institutional logic		67
JEL codes: F35, G21, G28, L31, M14.....		67
Acknowledgments		67
1.	Introduction.....	68
2.	Profits and Pricing in Social Enterprise: The Case of Microfinance.....	71
3.	Fair Profits in Microfinance: A Categorization.....	74
3.1.	Profitability.....	74
3.2.	Poverty Outreach.....	75
3.3.	Pricing.....	77
3.4.	Surplus Distribution.....	79
4.	Fair Profits in Microfinance: Empirical Application.....	83
4.1.	Dataset Description.....	83
4.2.	Empirical Application.....	85
5.	Conclusion	92
Conclusion		95
1.	Summary of the Dissertation.....	95
2.	Contributions to Financial Literature	97
3.	Policy and Managerial Implications	99
4.	Limitations	100
5.	Directions for Future Research.....	102
Bibliography.....		105
Appendix.....		121